VISA INFORMATION*:

All travelers must have a valid passport which does not expire for 6 months past your return date, and a Cuban visa. You are responsible for having this proper documentation on your person to enter Cuba as well as to re-enter the United States. Also, if you are originating outside of the United States, you must have proper documentation to travel via the United States to Cuba. The Cuban Government retains the right to grant or deny visas.

Very important: persons born in Cuba, no matter what your current citizenship, will require additional documentation, and may not be able to obtain a Cuban visa. If a visa is not granted, you will not be able to travel to Cuba with ATA, and will receive a full refund of any monies received. Please contact ATA at 1-800-556-7896 for further information.

SECTION OF THE REGULATIONS / GENERAL LICENSE THAT AUTHORIZES MY TRAVEL TO CUBA:

- 31 C.F.R. § 515.565(b) People-to-People travel under the auspices of an organization that sponsors such exchanges to promote people-to-people contact

Name of People to People organization: Academic Travel Abroad
31 C.F.R. § 515.565(b) People to People Travel

The travel-related transactions and such additional transactions as are directly incident to educational exchanges not involving academic study pursuant to a degree program – that is, people-to-people exchanges – are authorized, provided that:

- 1- The exchanges take place under the auspices of an organization subject to U.S. jurisdiction and that sponsors such exchanges to promote people-to-people contact;
- 2- Travel must be for the purpose of engaging, while in Cuba, in a full-time schedule of activities intended to enhance contact with the Cuban people, support civil society in Cuba, or promote the Cuban people's independence from Cuban authorities.
- 3- Each traveler has a full-time schedule of educational exchange activities that will result in meaningful interaction between the traveler and individuals in Cuba
- 4- An employees, paid consultant, or agent of the sponsoring organization accompanies each group traveling to Cuba to ensure that each traveler has a full-time schedule of educational exchange activities; and
- 5- The predominant portion of the activities engaged in by individual travelers is not with individuals or entities acting for or on behalf of certain prohibited officials of the Government of Cuba or certain members of the Cuban Communist Party.

Important:

Note 1: An organization that sponsors and organizes trips to Cuba in which travelers engage in individually selected and/or self-directed activities would not qualify for the general license.

Authorized trips are expected to be led by the sponsoring organization.

Transactions related to activities that are primarily tourist-oriented, including self-directed educational activities that are intended only for personal enrichment, are not authorized.

I agree to adhere to the guidelines as outlined in the Section of the Regulations / General License that authorizes my travel to Cuba.
